

RIVERSIDE COUNTY OFFICE ON AGING

.....Strength in Aging

Agency News Notes 1st Quarter 2006-07

Affordable Housing Forum Report: A summary of highlights from the Advisory Council on Aging and the Office on Aging Forum on Affordable and Accessible Housing for seniors and adults with disabilities has been issued. For further information in this report, or on the Forum, contact Linda Swanson, Program Specialist at (951) 867-3800.

Ad Hoc Food Bank Report: A summary report of findings and recommendations from the Food Bank Task Force has been issued by the Office on Aging and Advisory Council on Aging. The Task Force reviewed the current food bank system in Riverside County, especially as it serves seniors, and identified other food bank models that might be explored to improve systems locally. For further information on this report, contact Francis Scott, Contract Services Officer, at (951) 867-3800

Roundtable on Women and Aging: The Foundation on Aging recently convened an Invitational Roundtable to address the special issues, needs and concerns that women face as they age. The proceedings of this Roundtable are available from the Foundation on Aging Director, Michael Carbine, at (951) 776-7792, and can also be accessed on the Office on Aging web site www.rcaging.org.

Intergenerational Forum: The Riverside County Office on Aging, the Advisory Council on Aging, and the County Youth Commission, recently convened an Intergenerational Forum to share opinions on issues such as health and economics that cut across all generations. Additional information on the goals and planning process for this Forum can be obtained from Linda Swanson, Program Specialist at (951) 867-3800.
